

I DO NOT think that you should weaken New Jersey's do not call law. It is much more peaceful without constant unwanted interruptions and we can now actually answer the phone when it rings without fear of being coinstantly bonbarded with unwanted solicitations.